

Interview Preparation Cheatsheet — for the applicant's personal use only

Detailed 12-document package · 16 June – 6 July 2026

DO NOT SUBMIT. This is for the applicant to read the morning of the appointment. Print on a folded A4 and keep in the inside coat pocket.

Iron rules

1. Tell the truth. Every answer is independently verifiable. Lying = automatic refusal under fraud.
2. Be consistent with the file. If the file says NPR 700,000, do not say "around 5 lakh" in the interview.
3. Speak in short sentences. 1–3 sentences per answer. No rambling, no over-explaining.
4. Match every number. Trip cost, balance, salary, leave dates, return date.
5. Sponsored vs self-funded boundary. Memorise this exact line:

"eduneon GmbH is sponsoring my round-trip flight and the 5 nights in Berlin only. Everything else — accommodation in 8 other cities, all internal transport, food, tourism — I am paying myself from personal savings."

The 20 most common questions — and short, evidence-based answers

#	QUESTION	ANSWER (MEMORISE KEY FACTS, NOT WORDING)
1	Why are you visiting Germany?	"I have been invited by eduneon GmbH in Berlin for a 5-day on-site business engagement from 28 June to 3 July 2026. Before and after Berlin, I am also travelling as a tourist."
2	Who is sponsoring the trip?	"eduneon GmbH, a Berlin-based company. They are sponsoring my flights and the 5 nights in Berlin only. All other costs are self-funded."
3	Why is the company sponsoring only part of the stay?	"The sponsorship covers only the period I am at their office. The tourism before and after Berlin is personal — so I am paying for that myself."
4	What will you do after the sponsored days?	"From 3 July evening I take an overnight FlixBus from Berlin to Amsterdam, spend two nights in Alkmaar near Amsterdam, and fly back to Delhi from Schiphol on 6 July."
5	How will you fund the remaining trip?	"From my personal savings. My closing bank balance is NPR [amount] . The self-funded portion costs me about EUR 1,700 – 2,000. My funds cover that approximately [X] times over."

#	QUESTION	ANSWER (MEMORISE KEY FACTS, NOT WORDING)
6	What is your employment situation?	"I am [designation] at [employer], employed since [year]. My net monthly salary is NPR [amount]. I have approved leave from [date] to [date] and resume work on Monday 13 July 2026."
7	Why will you return to Nepal?	"My full-time job, my [spouse / children / parents], my property at [district], my tax filings — they are all in Nepal. I am taking 3 weeks of leave, not relocating."
8	Have you travelled internationally before?	"Yes — [list honestly: India / UAE / Thailand / etc.]. I always returned within the visa validity." (If no prior travel: "This is my first international trip. My ties to Nepal and the strong sponsor invitation are why I am applying now.")
9	What is your relationship with eduneon GmbH?	"I am [a long-term remote contributor / a contracted developer / a partner] working with their team since [year] on [area of work]. This visit is for [onboarding / annual review / workshop]."
10	Why did you choose Germany?	"The sponsor is in Berlin — the business purpose led the choice. Berlin is also my country of longest stay (5 nights), so this is the correct embassy for the application."
11	What cities will you visit?	"Rome, Lake Como, Lucerne, Bern, Lauterach, Salzburg, Vienna, Prague, Berlin, Amsterdam, and Alkmaar." (Memorise the route in order.)
12	Where will you stay?	"Airbnb apartments in 8 cities; the sponsor's accommodation in Berlin; one overnight on FlixBus. All bookings are at Tab 13 of my file."
13	How much money will you carry?	"About EUR [400–600] in cash plus a Wise multi-currency card pre-loaded with EUR, CHF, and CZK, plus a Nepali credit card for emergencies."
14	Who prepared your itinerary?	"I prepared it myself using a trip-planning tool. Each booking is in my own name. The day-by-day plan is at Tab 12."
15	What is your monthly income?	"Net NPR [amount] per month, credited by [employer] to my [bank] account on the [date]th every month — see the highlighted entries in the bank statement at Tab 19."
16	Why are there large transactions in your bank account?	(Refer to Section 5 of your financial-statement letter.) "On [date] I received NPR [amount] from [source]. The supporting document is at Tab 19a."
17	Will you work in Europe? Do you work remotely?	"No. I will be on approved leave throughout the trip and will not be performing work duties in the Schengen Area. My role permits remote work in Nepal but the leave letter at Tab 17 makes clear no work will be done abroad."
18	Who will cover emergency expenses?	"My travel medical insurance covers EUR [≥ 30,000] for the full trip — Tab 15. Beyond that, my personal savings and credit card are sufficient."
19	What happens if your plans change?	"If the business segment shortens, I return earlier. If something prevents the trip entirely, I will not use the visa or will request its cancellation. I have no intention of overstaying or changing the purpose."
20	Why should your visa be approved?	"I have a bounded business invitation from a verifiable Berlin sponsor; a complete, fully-booked day-by-day itinerary; full travel insurance; sufficient personal funds; and clear, documented ties to Nepal in my employment, family, and property. I will leave the Schengen Area on 6 July 2026."

Five facts you must memorise cold

FACT	VALUE
Sponsor	eduneon GmbH, Berlin
Sponsor contact	Mr. Clemens Grolman
Flight booking	Turkish Airlines, PNR TCA424, EUR 3,826.59
Trip dates	16 June – 6 July 2026 (21 days)
Resumption of duty	Monday 13 July 2026

Five facts you must keep consistent with the file

FACT	SOURCE OF TRUTH
Monthly salary	Salary slips (Tab 18) + Employment Letter (Tab 16) + Bank statement (Tab 19)
Closing balance	Bank statement (Tab 19) + Financial Statement Letter (Tab 19, first page)
Personal cost (EUR)	Budget table (Tab 13a) — must be the same number you say
Berlin sponsored dates	28 Jun – 3 Jul — same in cover letter, invitation, itinerary, budget
Country of longest stay	Germany (Berlin, 5 nights)

Do's and don'ts

- ✔ Speak clearly · ✔ Eye contact · ✔ One question at a time · ✔ "I don't know" is fine if true · ✔ Carry pen + appointment letter
- ✗ Don't volunteer extra information · ✗ Don't bring up family medical situations as reason for return — "my job + property" is stronger · ✗ Don't joke about overstaying or "moving permanently" · ✗ Don't say "please grant me the visa" — sound certain, not pleading · ✗ Don't disparage Nepal — talk about what you are returning to, not what you are escaping · ✗ Don't argue with the officer · ✗ Don't show your phone

What to do if you don't know an answer

Two acceptable phrases:

- "I don't have that exact number with me — it is on page [X] of my file."
- "I would need to confirm that with my [employer / HR / sponsor] — may I have a moment, or shall I follow up by email?"

Better to admit you don't know than to invent. The officer will respect honesty far more than a wrong guess.

30 minutes before the appointment

- ☐ Phone on silent

- ☐ Two pens (blue), passport, appointment letter in your pocket — not your file
- ☐ Re-read the five "memorise cold" facts above
- ☐ Re-read your own cover letter (Tab 6) one more time
- ☐ Deep breath. You have prepared a complete file. Speak from the truth in the file.
